December 30, 1960

General C.P. Cabell, USAF,
Deputy Director,
Central Intelligence Agency,
WASHINGTON, D.C.

Dear General Cabell:

I have been asked to assume, before my retirement as 1960 Chairman of the Executive Council of this Conference, the honor and pleasant duty of requesting your presence as its guest at luncheon in the Red Room (seventh floor) Army & Navy Club, Washington, D.C., on Friday, January 27 next at one o'clock.

On this occasion official presentation will be made to you and to other Awardees in the Washington area of the VIBRANT PATRIOT RECOGNITION Awards adjudged to you and to them by the 1960 National Awards Panel of the All-American Conference for exceptional vigilance and outstanding effort during that year in defense of world freedom menaced by godless communism.

We look forward to the pleasure of welcoming you and expressing personally our congratulations and sincere thanks for your effective service to our country and the cause of freedom everywhere.

Please advise Mr. W.C. "Tom" Sawyer, Council Secretary, at your early convenience if we may expect you.
